September 2023

Worship Services are held on Sunday at 9:00 am.

10:00am as of September 10.

As this long,
warm month
draws to a close,
I'm both grateful
for the rejuvenating summer and eager for fall's new energy.

Thank you
for seasons,
Lord.

“Jesus said to them, ‘I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.’” ~John 6:35

Beloved,

A few years ago, Elena and I discovered the competition baking show, The Great British Baking Show. As the name implies, it is a baking competition from England, where twelve amateur bakers compete over the course of 10 weeks to become the “Star Baker.” I confess that I was skeptical at first. I’m not a big fan of “reality tv,” but this show is so engaging! The judges are critical, but kind; the contestants do not attempt to undercut one another, but instead encourage and applaud each other’s successes, and console in failures.

Each week has a different theme, but my favorite each season is “Bread Week.” Bread is something that humans have been eating since time can remember. It is classic; it is sustaining; it has been vital to our very survival at times.

But bread is also demanding. It demands attention, to be kneaded and rolled; it demands patience, giving the yeast plenty of time to mature, the dough enough time to rise. Depending on the type of bread you make, the recipe will change. It takes a lot to make a good loaf of bread.

It is probably my favorite week of The Great British Baking Show because communion is one of my favorite things to lead and participate in. The whole of the sixth chapter of John’s gospel is, from beginning to end, “the bread chapter.” Jesus as the bread of life and the bread of heaven. He begins the chapter by literally feeding five thousand people (v. 1-14); the chapter ends with Jesus foreshadowing the Eucharistic meal, that he will be the bread and wine that they eat and drink.

All of which gets me thinking... what feeds us? When I watch The Great British Baking Show, I confess that my mouth waters at the sight of extraordinary, delicious looking cakes, pies, biscuits, and tarts. Yet at the same time, I know these only fill me temporarily. I will eventually be hungry again. But what is going to feed me in a way that sustains me, in a way that I will not be hungry again? Quite simply: the life and love of Jesus.

Yet that comes to us in many forms. I could give examples, but I want to know what feeds you. What nourishes your spirit? What feeds your soul? What fills you in ways that you don’t need filling again? Is it a shared meal around a table in Fellowship Hall? Is it a bible or book book study with friends? Is it getting involved packing boxes of food at the Regional Food Bank?

What feeds you?

This isn't just rhetorical - I really want to know! So over the next month or so, come find me! Let's sit down and talk about just what it is that feeds you and fills you and builds you up for the sharing and living of these days. Because the life and love of Jesus that we encounter is a life and love that needs to be shared - just like a good, tasty bread.

Grace & peace,

~Pastor Kyle

Introducing: The Narrative Lectionary!

For as long as I have been preaching, I have stuck, by and large, to the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL). "I'm a lectionary preacher," I would say. The RCL was the product of a collaboration between the North American Consultation on Common Texts (CCT) and the International English Language Liturgical Consultation (ELLC), and was publicly released in 1994. It is a three-year cycle that guides churches around the world in suggested readings for a given Sunday, based in part on the date of the liturgical calendar.

One of the things I have loved about the RCL is that I know, wherever we are worshiping, there are other churches in the world reading these same texts. It helps to build up the idea of the Body of Christ.

At the same time, the RCL has felt a bit stale recently, and I have looked for a way to shake things up. Which brings us to the "Narrative Lectionary" (NL).

This is four-year cycle of readings for the Sundays from September through May each year, and follow the sweep of the biblical story, from Creation through the early Christian church. The texts show the breadth and variety of voices within Scripture. They invite us to hear the stories of Abraham and Sarah, Moses and the prophets, Jesus, and Paul. Listening to the many different voices within Scripture enriches preaching and the life of faith.

This summer, we have experienced what it can be like to follow the larger narrative of scripture as we have walked through Genesis, following the story of the family of Abraham (in all its realness!).

Though the RCL has united the church in its reading of scripture and has given much-needed structure, it doesn't present scripture - especially the Old Testament - in a way that helps people become fluent in the first language of faith. The NL is an attempt to take nine months to do just that! This experiment was initiated by Profs. Rolf Jacobson and Craig Koester of Luther Seminary, and began in 2010.

I am excited to explore scripture in our weekly worship in this new way with you, and look forward to being inspired with you by the story of our faith!

September 3- Pastor Kyle away, Mr. Donald Hyman, preaching,

Hebrews 12:1-11 Peaceable Fruits of Righteousness

September 10 (10:00AM service time resumes!)- TBD, What is the Narrative Lectionary?

September 17- Genesis 2:4b-25, Tilling the Soil

September 24- Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-7, Holy Laughter

Getting to Know Our Sacred Text: The Bible 101

Wednesday Evenings, 7:00 pm (in person but Zoom will be available)

October 18-December 6

It is no secret that many church members feel inadequate about their knowledge of the Bible. The truth is, many pastors feel the same way!

Most Americans own a Bible, maybe even two or three. We hear the Bible quoted in religious, cultural, and political discussions.

Yet too few people really understand what is held in these ancient texts. In fact, there is a lot that we think is in the Bible that isn't - and vice versa.

Beginning Wednesday evening, October 18, we will embark on a seven week journey of discovery to orient our understanding and get a sense for the whole of the Bible, as well as the sections in the Bible that we wish to learn more about.

We will examine the basic contents of the Bible with the conviction that we first need some level of elementary comprehension of the Bible's stories, poetry, regulations, and teachings in order to imaginatively interpret them.

The overview of our time together will be as follows:

October 18 – The Pentateuch

October 25 – The Historical Books

November 1 – The Poetic Books

November 8 – The Prophetic Books

November 15 – The Gospels & the Acts of the Apostles

November 29 – Pauline Epistles

December 6 – General Epistles & Revelation

The book, A Guide to Bible Basics, by Tyler D. Mayfield, is $18*. If you would like to sign up for the this study, please email Pastor Kyle or Kim in the office.

*checks can be made payable to HUPC, and as always, if cost is prohibitive, please speak to Pastor Kyle!

Planning for End of Life:

A Two-Session Workshop

Saturday, October 21 and Saturday, November 4

10:00 am - 11:30 am (in person only)

It has been said, “In this world, nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes.” We tend to spend plenty of time and planning on the latter, but pay little attention to the former.

Yet planning for the time of our death is an act of love for our families and friends.

When someone dies, everything changes. Time becomes compact; emotions are high. Loved ones have to make important decisions, and what happens more often than not is that we do not know the answers.

“What kind of service did they want?”

“Did she have any favorite hymns?”

“Did he wish to be cremated?”

By identifying your preferences now, we give our loved ones the gift of peace.

On Saturday, October 21 and Saturday, November 4, we will gather in the lounge to work through the many questions and considerations we ought to be considering when we think about future planning.

At the end of the workshop, you will have created a document that outlines your wishes and desires, so that you and your loved ones can rest easy, knowing that some questions are already answered.

One Man's Response to September 11

Darkness overwhelms!

Destruction, rained from nether realms.
Such mindless violence benumbs.
We fathom not from whence it comes.

Pure hatred down upon us fell,
Our world engulfed by fires from hell.
Airliners used as tools of war,
First one, then two, now three and four.

The rescue workers, by the score,
Rushed in to go from floor to floor.
Ignoring risk and hazard great,
Many succumbed to deadly fate.

Such images, beyond our ken.
From towers tall, fell steel --- and men.
Black clouds of doom rolled down the street.
Glass, shattered, crunched 'neath running feet.

Our minds reject reality.
This devastation can not be.
How can such inhumanity be real?
Sent purposely? With human zeal?

While strong men cry 'neath smoke filled sky,
Around the earth, the world asks "Why?"
Thousands dead, the rest in dread,
Result they say, of men misled.

Soon, on each porch, each car, each breast,
Old Glory flies to meet the test.
The Eagle soars o'er hallowed land,
While patriots flock to lend a hand.

Some dig among the rubble, deep.
Some, holding candles, vigils keep.
Good works abound and prayers galore
To Allah, God and saints of yore.

One nation, under God --- not riven.
With blood and time and toil given,
To heal the wounds and build anew,
'Neath banners bold --- red, white and blue.

Our prayers and dollars, that we send,
Will make a difference in the end.
But more, we know, we need to do,
To right our world, now so askew.

We can not all be heroes, great.
But neither can we sit and wait.
Each one has talents, from Above,
To change our world, when used with love.

A candle light, right where you stand,
A neighbor close could use a hand.
Your town, a hospital, your church,
For talents that you have, may search.

Let shine the Light on those around,
And darkness pales, or so I've found.
Do something positive, right now,
This world, with justice, to endow.

So let us heed our nation's call
To make a difference, one and all.
Amidst the strife, assess your life,
Each brother, sister, husband, wife.

Circle Meetings to Resume on Tues, Sept 26 - New Bible Study

Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight

We don't have any planned events for the summer. We will begin our new Bible study at our next Circle Meeting on Tues, Sept 26. We will meet from 10:30 am – 12:30 pm. Rev. Kyle Delhagan will introduce the new study, Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight & lead a discussion on Lesson 1, Sabbath and Celebration. Bring a bag lunch. Beverage and dessert will be provided.

All women are invited to participate in any Presbyterian Women's activity at any time. There is no need to make a commitment to join the organization. For questions about Presbyterian Women, contact Charlotte Hasselbarth at 518-356-0637 or chasselbarth@hotmail.com. We meet in the lounge, with a zoom option.

About Our Special Guest...

Leah Scognamiglio (UALbany class of '11, '13, '19) was a member of Cornerstone Campus Ministry from 2007-2013 and served on the Board from 2016-2019. As a member of Cornerstone, Leah participated in three mission trips to New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. As a UAlbany employee, Leah continued to help coordinate Cornerstone mission trips after Hurricanes Irene, Sandy, and Maria and developed and led a credit-bearing, service-learning alternative spring break program in Costa Rica from 2014-2019. Leah currently serves as the Assistant Director for First Year Experience at UAlbany. She was married by Cornerstone's former campus pastor, Rev. Sandy Damhof, in 2018 to fellow UAlbany alumnus, John, and welcomed Cornerstone baby, Emily Grace, in December 2022.

Cornerstone Protestant Campus Ministry seeks to bring Christians together at the University at Albany so they can make a difference in the world.

Image by alamy

Men's flip-flops are needed for the Capital Area Council of Churches Emergency Overflow Shelter. They can generally only be purchased in the summer. Donations can be left in the collection box at the top of the stairs in the Christian Education Building. Men's white athletic socks and laundry detergent are also needed.

Personal Care Items Needed by UAlbany's Purple Pantry Continuous Collection

We're collecting personal care items for both men and women for The Purple Pantry, the food pantry on the UAlbany Campus. Personal care items are seldom donated and/or are available from the Food Bank. Items needed are toothpaste, facial tissues, deodorant, shampoo, soap, contact solution, cotton swabs, & razors. Feminine care products are also needed.

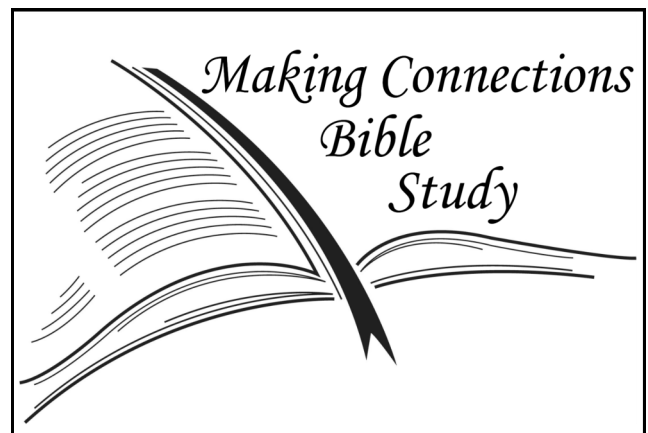

Please place your donations in the basket at the top of the stairs in the Christian Education Building or in the collection box in front of the Christian Education Building, with a note saying they are for The Purple Pantry.

Making Connections Bible Study Invites You

Our Bible Study welcomes everyone! We meet on Mondays at 1pm via Zoom (<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82952276592?pwd=U1hudkdXTGFRVm9QRHRQZ1JleUZaQT09>) for lively discussion (guided by a volunteer participant) surrounding, but not limited to, the lectionary readings for the upcoming Sunday. If you have any questions, please call Steve Smith (518.462.9837.) We will be on hiatus for the summer and then pick up again on Monday, Sept 11. Hope we'll see you on Monday afternoons!

Mark your calendars for HUPC's next (and last for 2023) Brooks Chicken BBQ coming up on Wednesday, September 27! Come one, come all. Tell all your friends! This is an important fundraiser for HUPC and supports our various mission activities and church budget. As always, we need a big crew of chicken-schleppers to pull off this important fundraiser, including set-up help Wednesday morning, greeters, packers on the assembly line, order takers, meal deliverers (great job for youth who need volunteer service hours!!), cashiers and clean up help. September has usually been a good time for sales but a tough time for some of our regular volunteers since school activities are back in swing. If you can help out on the 27th, please let Bruce Williamson know as soon as possible, at bewillia302@gmail.com or 518-435-5039. Many hands make light work, and guarantee you get your chicken dinner before we sell out!

Bible Study Books to be OrderedCelebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and DelightAppropriate for Both Men and Women, Plus Good for Personal or Group Study

Presbyterian Women will be starting a new Bible study, this September, Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight. This study will consider Sabbath using passages from Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Matthew, Luke, and Acts.

Some points made in the study are:

- as a celebration, not a day of dreary formality
- as God's intent for all of creation that includes busy women too
- as one day of the week, perhaps a Sunday
- as a time to surrender unhealthy striving and frantic busyness, and instead trust that God will provide
- as a reminder that life is precious and working too much is against God's plans for our precious lives
- as a day devoted to community and justice and not exclusively to self-care

Ultimately, Sabbath reminds us to honor God who honors us by giving us a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives.

If you would like to purchase the new study book for the Presbyterian Women's Circle Meetings, your own private use or use in another group, contact Joanne Wagner at 355-1408 or jnnwgnr@yahoo.com by Fri, Sept.1. The study books are $10 and $15 for large print. Payment is due when they arrive, which will be in mid Sept. There will be an option to get a used book at no charge. The first 3 people to order a new regular print one will get a book at a reduced cost of $7.50, as they had been ordered in advance during a special sale.

Volunteer Opportunities

The Mission Team announces the next volunteer opportunities at the Regional Food Bank, to sort donated food:

Thurs., Sept. 21
From 5:00-6:30pm

We will have up to 9 slots available, first come, first served. NO sandals or open toe shoes! We are working in a warehouse.

A good opportunity to serve the community, and the work is not difficult. If you are interested, please contact Wayne Gannett to sign up at jgannett@nycap.rr.com.

News on hunger, from CBS News March 21, 2023:

Almost 25% of American adults are food insecure, a jump of about five percentage points from a year earlier as the double whammy of high inflation and the end of pandemic benefits squeezes more household budgets, according to a new study by the Urban Institute.

Food insecurity indicates that someone isn't able to secure enough food for a nutritious diet, which can lead to skipping meals or cutting back on food. Those strategies, though, can have implications for a person's health and well-being, experts say.

The rise in food insecurity comes as more households are struggling to pay their typical bills amid grocery costs that have surged 20% in two years and rents that have increased 13%. Inflation surged last year to a four-decade high just as several pandemic-related benefits came to an end, heightening the financial stress for many, according to the new report from the Urban Institute.

"Food insecurity can be a canary in the coal mine for people who are experiencing high levels of hardship and aren't able to meet their household needs," Kassandra Martinchek, a research associate in the Center on Labor, Human Services, and Population at the Urban Institute, told CBS MoneyWatch.

She added, "It's a household economic condition where folks don't have enough resources to have enough food for their family for an active or healthy life."

Ever Outward! A Reminder from the Communications Ministry Team

As you plan events, the Communications Ministry Team would like to remind everyone to consider our greater community, the one outside our church parking lot. Is the event you are planning something people outside of our immediate church community might be interested in?

This is a slightly different mindset than we have had in the past, where we tended to focus on our immediate church family for communications about events. For example, traditionally, we might list an event in the Bulletin, the Monday Digest, and the Calendar and write an article about it for the Good News. However, these are all internal communications outlets — they often don't extend into our greater community.

Reaching our greater community is different now than in years past, when one could put up some flyers around town, send out a news release to the local newspapers, put up a sign on the church lawn and call it good. Signs and flyers still work, but instead of one news release we have a plethora of online community bulletin boards, as well as social media. Each one has a different format and deadline.

Reaching out to our greater community is a major reason we are asking folks to please use the events planning form (paper copy in this newsletter) or include all the information it covers in an email to Kim. Kim will then take your information and put it on bulletin boards, social media, etc. Of particular note on the form is where you would like your event publicized — this is where you can tell Kim it's for the community. Important: Kim needs your form or information at least three weeks before your event in order to meet publication deadlines for local newspapers and give social media time to do its thing. Also, it's important to let people — those in our church community and those in the community — know about an event in enough time for them to make plans to attend.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation!
